8 Cancellation by the University

8.1 The University reserves the right to cancel a reservation at any time. In the event that the University cancels a reservation, it reserves the right to refund to the Organisation any deposit paid if it is deemed appropriate.

8.2 The University shall not be liable to pay compensation for any loss sustained or inconvenience caused as a result, or in any way arising, out of the cancellation by it of a reservation.

8.3 Without prejudice to its right to cancel a reservation, the University reserves its right to offer the Organisation alternative facilities to those originally booked, in circumstances where:

8.3.1 The Organisation can no longer guarantee the contracted number of people agreed; or

8.3.2 Where the Organisation wishes to increase the contracted number.

9. Advertising

The University Premises must not be used by the Organisation, members of its party, their servants, agents or others authorised by them, for any advertising purposes, unless previously agreed in writing with the University.

10. Equipment, Facilities and Outside Services

10.1 The University will supply the Organiser with a list of the audio visual equipment which can be made available during the event. The University requires notice of at least one month should any such equipment be required. The University will make reasonable endeavours to provide equipment within this period but cannot guarantee to supply equipment if it has not received the stated notice from the Organiser.

10.2 Clause 6 shall apply to any equipment brought onto the University premises by the Organisation or any third party, at the request of the Organisation. Booking Terms and Conditions. Leicester Conferences, Residential and Commercial Services, University of Leicester, Stamford Court, Manor Road, Leicester LE2 2LH

Tel: 0116 223 1680 ☎ Internet: www.leicesterconferences.co.uk ☎ Email: conferences@le.ac.uk

10.3 The Organisation must not exceed the times allocated for the use of each facility. The University shall reserve the right to charge for the extra time (this will also apply to the audio visual equipment). If at any time prior to the date of the event, the Organiser wishes to amend the number of hours reserved, the University will endeavour to facilitate such changes.

10.4 When the University, at the request of the Organiser, arranges for a service to be provided by a person or an Organisation external to the University, the person or Organisation visiting the premises of the University shall be treated as so doing by arrangement with the Organiser. The Organiser accepts full responsibility for the actions of such person or body.

11. Exhibitions

If an Organisation wishes to erect an exhibition during an event, the Organiser shall provide the proposed layout of the exhibition, at least two months in advance, for approval. The University may withhold approval or it may require changes to the proposed plan, as shall be notified to the Organiser.

12. Exclusivity

The Organisation should be aware that there may be other organisations holding events on the premises of the University at the same time as it is holding its own event. For this reason certain facilities, in particular dining facilities, may be used on a shared basis. If the Organisation requires private facilities the University shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate any such request.

13. Force Majeure

The University does not accept any responsibility for failure to provide any of the services agreed as part of any reservation where such failure results from events beyond the control of the University including, by the way of example, industrial action or act of God.

14 Assignment

The Organisation shall not assign or otherwise transfer the reservation.
